

THE GEORGIA TECH CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS (CIBER)
AND THE
US INDIA BUSINESS & RESEARCH CENTER (USIBRC)
CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO A WORKSHOP

“THE NEW INDIA- CHINA ECONOMIC RELATIONSHIP: IMPLICATIONS FOR THE WORLD”

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 13TH 7:30 P.M.
GEORGIA TECH STUDENT CENTER BALLROOM
350 Ferst Drive, N.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30332-0458

- Anupam Srivastava, Director, Asia Projects, Center for International Trade and Security, and Adjunct Professor, School of Public and International Affairs, University of Georgia
- Penelope B. Prime, Professor, Stetson School of Business and Economics, Mercer University; Director, China Research Center
- John Garver, Professor, Sam Nunn School of International Affairs; Director, Asia Program, Center for International Strategy, Technology, and Policy (CISTP), Georgia Institute of Technology
- Moderator: John R. McIntyre, Director, Center for International Business Education & Research (CIBER), Georgia Institute of Technology

Cost: Free . Event is open to the public, registration recommended.
To register and receive directions, please send e-mail to: USIBRC@gmail.com

Also, please indicate if you would like to have dinner at 6:30PM prior to the workshop. Cost: TBD

For event information, sponsorship opportunities and registration please contact:

Ani Agnihotri, US India Business and Research Center (USIBRC)
Phone: 404-394-6678 E-mail: Ani.Agnihotri@gmail.com

Co-Sponsored by:

CHINA RESEARCH CENTER
www.chinacenter.net

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL STRATEGY, TECHNOLOGY, AND POLICY

Georgia Tech Ivan Allen College
THE SAM NUNN SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS