

Office of Workforce and Career Development (OWCD)
and WHO-CDC Collaborating Center for Global Public Health Workforce Development
Invite CDC/ATSDR employees to attend

OWCD Science Seminar

Wednesday, September 23, 2009

10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon (EDT)

2400 Century Center, Conference Room 1A/1B

Global Crisis in Human Resources for Health

SPEAKER:

Lincoln Chen, MD

President, China Medical Board

Endowed by John D. Rockefeller in 1914, the China Medical Board is an independent American foundation to advance health in China and Asia, by strengthening medical education, research, and policies. Dr. Chen has published extensively in the area of health human resources, population health, health equity, health policy, and health systems. Dr. Chen's bio is available at <http://www.chinamedicalboard.org/people.php>.

A roundtable discussion will follow the presentation. Panel members include Stephen Blount, MD, MPH, Director, Coordinating Office of Global Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC); Jeffrey P. Koplan, MD, MPH, Vice President, Global Health, Emory University; Stephen B. Thacker, MD, MSc, Acting Director, National Center for Public Health Informatics, CDC; with Carol A. Gotway Crawford, PhD, Science Officer, OWCD, as moderator.

This event is open to everyone. Registration is not required; however, if guests without CDC badges are planning to attend in person, or if you have additional questions, please contact Dr. Zhuo (Adam) Chen at fov7@cdc.gov or 404-498-6317.

This seminar is not videotaped, but is Envisioned. If you wish to join by Envision, schedule a room and Envision at <http://crss.cdc.gov> or by using your local room scheduling process and then schedule Envision at this link: <http://intraspn.cdc.gov/wagg/ITSOCustomerService/envision.aspx>.

Please do not respond to this message.