

“Ni Hao, China”: A Celebration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the People’s Republic of China

Dates: 23 & 24 September 2009

The National Association of Chinese Americans (NACA) extends a public invitation to attend an Atlanta Chinese Community celebration marking the 60th year in the founding of the People's Republic of China. Over 100 businesses and organizations are anticipated to be in attendance.

As President Obama stated at the opening of the annual US-China Strategic and Economic Dialogue, "US-China relations is one of the most important for the 21st century".

NACA, in association with CBAA, ACP and ACCA, has jointly developed a program called "Ni Hao, China" to celebrate this occasion.

-On September 23rd, beginning at 7:30 PM, teams from both China and Atlanta will present a dazzling performance at the auditorium of Perimeter Church located at 9500 Medlock Bridge road in Duluth. Tickets are $10, $15, $20 and $50.

-On September 24th at 6:30 PM, a banquet will be held at the Marriott Century Park Center on 2000 Century Boulevard. This will be a great opportunity to meet leaders from both Atlanta and China. Tickets are as follows:

Single - $60, Member table for 10 - $500, Corporate table for 10 - $800

-If you are interested in reserving an advertisement space for the program book, please contact Jung Mar. There is limited space and is on a first come, first serve basis. The pricing is as follows:
