

16th U.S.-China Legal Exchange

Global Commerce is proud to host the final day of the 16th U.S.-China Legal Exchange in the Board Room of the Metro Atlanta Chamber on Friday, October 21, 2011.

The U.S.-China Legal Exchange is organized by the U.S. Department of Commerce, The Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China, and the Legislative Affairs Office of the State Council of the People's Republic of China. This unique forum provides a rare opportunity for our local business, legal and academic communities to interact directly with Chinese officials on new and important developments in China's commercial legal and regulatory environments.

This year, a delegation of high-level government officials from China will present to public audiences in three U.S. cities: San Francisco, Denver and Atlanta. In each city, the topics for the forum will include:

- (i) China's review of mergers and acquisitions under its Anti-Monopoly Law
- (ii) New developments in consumer product safety and tort liability in China

During the forum you will have the chance to discuss with Chinese government officials the impact of these changes on commercial opportunities for you and other American companies doing business in China. The forum will be led by high-level government officials from both the U.S. and China, including:

Cameron Kerry, General Counsel, U.S. Department of Commerce
Chong Quan, Vice Minister, Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China

- WHAT: U.S. China Legal Exchange
- WHEN: Friday, October 21, 2011
8:30 AM – 4:30 PM
- WHERE: Board Room
Metro Atlanta Chamber
235 Andrew Young International Blvd, NW, Atlanta, GA 30303
- WHO Should Attend: Business executives; In-house counsels; Attorneys; Law Students & Professors
- WHY: A rare opportunity to interact and build relationships with high-level government officials and commercial legal experts from China
- RSVP: <http://www.metroatlantachamber.com/content/Event.aspx?Code=54a6a540-2e75-413c-9165-5e84319a212f&Sid=8&Id=2>
- COST: $25 (includes continental breakfast and lunch)