

USCPFA- ATLANTA FALL FORUM 2019

US-CHINA RELATIONS IN FLUX: POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC PERSPECTIVES

THIS FORUM WILL DISCUSS CURRENT US-CHINA RELATIONS FROM THE PERSPECTIVES OF POLITICS AND ECONOMICS, FEATURING SPEAKERS DR. YAWEI LIU AND DR. PENELOPE PRIME. BOTH HAVE EARNED BROAD INTERNATIONAL RENOWN AND ARE WIDELY PUBLISHED IN THEIR FIELDS, POLITICS AND ECONOMICS, RESPECTIVELY.

Dr. Yawei Liu is Director of the China Program at The Carter Center. He organizes excellent programs on China at The Carter Center. Dr. Liu is widely published in both English and Chinese.

Dr. Penelope B. Prime is Director of International Business programs at the J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University. In addition to her rich academic achievements, she has traveled widely in China and elsewhere in Asia, and has lived in China for extended periods over the past several decades.

These forums arranged by the US-China Peoples Friendship Association of Atlanta are offered as public interest and education activities. All interested people are welcome; admission is free. All are invited to join discussion following the presentation. We also go out for dinner (Dutch treat) after the forums to continue the forum topic and get better acquainted. All are welcome to join!
