

China's Quest: The History of the Foreign Relations of the People's Republic of China

A Presentation and Book Signing with John Garver, Ph.D.

Over its 65-year history, the People's Republic of China has evolved into a complex great power, with a rich history that had yet to be fully explored. China's Quest "knits together thick descriptions of events in China from 1949 until today into a clear, compelling narrative," Foreign Affairs raves.

Join Dr. John Garver as he presents his telling of China through its modern leaders, their policies, and the implications that have left their mark on the China we see today. He will be joined by Dr. Dalton Lin of the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, who will provide comments and insight into this fantastic read.

Light refreshments will be provided. Books will be available for purchase at the presentation courtesy of Barnes and Noble at Georgia Tech.

When: Tuesday, October 25th from 11:00am-12:00pm

Where: Georgia Tech Student Center, Room 332

Dr. John Garver is Professor Emeritus in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs at the Georgia Institute of Technology, specializing in China's foreign relations. He is a member of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, has testified before the U.S. Congress, and is the author of twelve books and seventy-five refereed articles and book chapters dealing with China's foreign relations.
