

2014 CHINA BRIEFING

A panel of speakers bringing updates on business, social and political developments in China.

Penelope Prime — Director, China Research Center

Dr. Prime is a professor in the Institute of International Business at Georgia State University and Director of the China Research Center. She has more than 30 years of experience studying and working within Chinese culture and the dynamic Chinese economy.

Nick Masino — Sr. VP, Gwinnett Chamber

Nick Masino is the Senior Vice President of Economic Development & Partnership Gwinnett at the Gwinnett Chamber in Duluth, Georgia. Masino has served in this key leadership role for the past seven years and oversees the business recruitment and retention efforts for Gwinnett, as well as the implementation of the Partnership Gwinnett Strategy.

Yawei Liu — Assc. Director, China Research Center

Yawei Liu (刘亚伟) is the associate director of the China Research Center in Atlanta. He also directs the China Program at The Carter Center. Yawei Liu is also a Zijiang Professor of Political Sciences at East China Normal University as well an adjunct professor of Political Science at Emory University.

Jeff Pruett — Managing Partner & CFO, AT-PAC

Mr. Pruett has over 27 years of accounting and financial experience, and has been with AT-PAC since 2010. As AT-PAC's CFO, he is responsible for overseeing the Company's financial operations (including accounting and treasury functions), its information technology, human resources, and risk management (including legal and insurance functions).

Date: November 6, 2014

Time: 7:30 am – 9:30 am Eastern

Location: Sutherland Asbill & Brennan LLP,
999 Peachtree Street, NE, Atlanta, GA 30309
28 floor, Court Room

Organized by the Georgia China Alliance, China Research Center and Sutherland Asbill & Brennan LLP, the China Breakfast Briefing will host a panel of speakers bringing updates on business, social and political developments in China.