

Chinese Language Films

2015中国电影展

9/21, 7:00pm – 9:00pm, White Hall 208

Mr. Deng Goes to Washington (dir. Hongxing Fu, 2015)

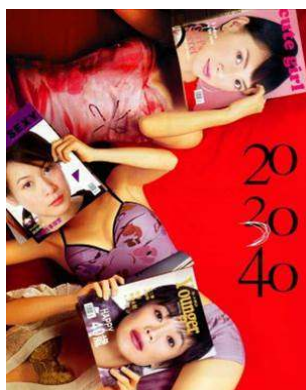

Nine days that forever changed China and the world! A critically acclaimed colorful documentary with innovative elements chronicling the late Chinese leader Deng Xiaoping's historic trip to America in 1979 at the invitation of President Carter.

9/28, 7:00pm – 9:00pm, White Hall 206

The Knots (dir. Li Yin, 2006), Mainland China/Hong Kong/Taiwan, 112 min. Winner of 2007 Best Film at Golden Rooster Awards (free and open to the public)

The first joint blockbuster between mainland China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan, The Knots is a heart wrenching story of two lovers separated by powers of politics and history beyond their control.

10/5, 7:00pm – 9:00pm White Hall 206

Women 20, 30, 40 (dir. Sylvia Chang, 2004), Taiwan, 113 min (free and open to the public)

Three women – aged 20, 30 and 40 - live in Taipei and deal with the emotional pitfalls in their relationships and careers. Xiaojie (Angelica Lee) who just turned twenty, Xiangxiang (Rene Liu), a 30-year-old, and Lily (Sylvia Chang), 40 and divorced, try to figure out what they really need in life.