

2017 China Speaker Series

Normalizing Private Business in China

This talk addresses the questions of why and how the Communist Party changed its attitude and policy toward private business in the reform era, and how the Party continued to expand the scope for it so that, along with marketization and globalization, private business has become a normal and integral part of contemporary China.

Presented by

Dr. Thomas Gold

Professor of Sociology
University of California, Berkeley

4:00 pm - 5:15 pm, March 30

White Hall 101

Free and open to the public

Co-sponsored by:

Confucius Institute at Emory

East Asian Studies

Russian and East Asian Languages & Cultures, Emory University