

“One China” Policy: Its Past and Future

Please join The Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, The Center for International Strategy, Technology, and Policy, the Department of Politics and Government at Illinois State University, and the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office for a workshop that seeks to clarify the distinction between China’s “One China Principle” and the United States’ “One China Policy,” and provide context and understanding to their origins.

A breakfast reception will be held prior to the workshop from 9:30-10:00am. Please RSVP to chris.mcdermott@gatech.edu by Friday, April 7th if you wish to attend the reception.

Program

“China’s One China Principle: Its Past and Future”
Jay Taylor; Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies, Harvard University

“One China, Different Meanings”
Steven Goldstein, Ph.D.; Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies, Harvard University

“The One China Principle and Asian International Relations”
John Garver, Professor Emeritus; Sam Nunn School, Georgia Institute of Technology

Session Moderator
Dalton Lin, Ph.D.; Sam Nunn School, Georgia Institute of Technology

When: April 12, 2017, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.
Where: Georgia Tech Student Center Commons, Piedmont Room

